

Tricia A. Martino

Associate

412-288-5008

martinota@hh-law.com

Practice Areas

Business Litigation

Employment and Trade Secret
Law

Intellectual Property

Insurance Coverage and Bad
Faith Law

Tricia Martino practices in the firm's litigation practice group with an emphasis on the substantive areas of Business Litigation, Employment and Trade Secret Law, Intellectual Property, and Insurance Coverage and Bad Faith Law.

Tricia has experience in matters involving breach of contract claims under the CISG, and insurance cases involving both personal and commercial policies.

Prior to working at Houston Harbaugh, Tricia worked in the Chambers of the Honorable Judith F. Olson where she assisted in drafting appellate opinions for cases within the jurisdiction of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

In law school, Tricia published, "Fear of Change: Carpenter v. United States and the Third-Party Doctrine" in the 58th edition of the Duquesne Law Review (58 Duq. L. Rev. 353). She is also an active member in the Allegheny County Bar Association (ACBA) where she co-chaired the record-breaking 2021 ACBA YLD Children's Gift Drive where they successfully coordinated attorneys and law firms to sponsor gifts for almost 900 children.

Bar Admissions

- Pennsylvania Supreme Court
- Western District of Pennsylvania

Education

- Duquesne University School of Law, J.D. Magna Cum Laude
- The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, B.A.

Professional Affiliations

- Allegheny County Bar Association ("ACBA")
 - Elected Young Lawyers Division Council Member
 - YLD Communications Committee Co-chair
 - YLD Public Service Committee Member
 - Appellate Practice Committee
 - Women in Law Division Member
- ACBA YLD Bar Leadership Initiative Member
- Co-Chair, ACBA YLD Children's Gift Drive and Holiday Party
- Duquesne Law Alumni Association
- Pennsylvania Bar Association

Publications

- “Fear of Change: Carpenter v. United States and the Third-Party Doctrine” in the 58th edition of the Duquesne Law Review (58 Duq. L. Rev.

